

New for spring 2015: The Palais collection

Palais honours traditional grandeur and reinterprets those elements in an exquisite collection of silk passementerie perfect for luxurious interiors of today. Taking inspiration from 17th century France, Palais features silk covered flowers, jasmine hangers, complex jacquard braids and luxurious, hand-tied silk tassel fringes.

The collection illustrates exceptional craftsmanship , through multiple sizes of plaited cords on tape, dimensional guipure coil jacquard border, lush scallop tassel fringe and cut fringe with hand crafted jasmines. A range of tassels is also available, including a single tassel tieback which features coil edged leaves and petals, as well as cascading silk guipure floral jasmines that elevate the collection's level of detail and sophistication. It is complimented by the double tassel tieback which boasts a mould embellished with a crisscross of guipures and a skirt embellished with hangers of tassels.

Palais' colour palette combines traditional hues with a subtle mix of gold and dove, along with vibrant fuchsia tones.
